Since it opened in April 1983, Tokyo Disney Resort has been a truly magical place for its guests.

Just twelve kilometers from central Tokyo, Tokyo Disney Resort contains two Disney theme parks — Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea — six Disney-branded hotels, and Ikspiari, an exciting shopping, dining and entertainment district.

Tokyo Disneyland, which opened in April 1983, was the first Disney theme park built outside of the U.S. and has become Japan's most popular family destination. Tokyo DisneySea, opened in September 2001, is a unique Disney park themed to the myths and legends of the sea, all in the grand tradition of Disney-style family entertainment.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Tokyo Disney Resort has recent and upcoming developments in both Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea. At Tokyo DisneySea, the expansion Fantasy Springs opened on June 6, 2024. This themed port for the park includes areas recreating the worlds of the Walt Disney Animation Studio films "Frozen", "Tangled", and "Peter Pan". Guests can enjoy four new attractions, Anna and Elsa's Frozen Journey, Rapunzel's Lantern Festival, Peter Pan's Never Land Adventure, and Fairy Tinker Bell's Busy Buggies as will as multiple restaurants and a gift shop.The expansion also included Tokyo Disney Resort's sixth Disney hotel, the park-integrated Tokyo DisneySea Fantasy Springs Hotel.

Additionally a renovation project for Space Mountain and Tomorrowland is underway and expected to open in 2027. Space Mountain: Earthrise, the signature attraction of Tomorrowland, will retain the previous version's concept as an indoor coaster but will be completely transformed. Guests can also look forward to the new attraction, Sugar Rush: Sweet Rescue, based on the world of the Walt Disney Animation Studio film"Wreck-it-Ralph" scheduled to open on April 15, 2027.

OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

Tokyo Disney Resort is owned and operated by Oriental Land Co, Ltd., a third-party Japanese corporation, which licenses The Walt Disney Company's intellectual property.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Because of its ownership structure, Tokyo Disney Resort's community activities are led by the Oriental Land Company of Japan, with support and encouragement from The Walt Disney Company.

Tokyo Disney Resort is dedicated to delivering Disney dreams to those who are unable to visit the resort. Since 1982, the Disney Ambassadors of Tokyo Disney Resort and Disney characters have visited over 1,572 facilities nationwide, including pediatric wards in hospitals, facilities for people with disabilities, special needs schools and nursing homes. Tokyo Disney Resort is also a supporter of Make-A-Wish Japan.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

Through its wide variety of business activities — including tourism, production of goods, provision of services, construction and maintenance — it is a major driver of economic activity in the Tokyo and Chiba prefectural areas. Moreover, Oriental Land Company adheres to a strict code of compliance, upholding high standards of business ethics, and encourages partners to do the same.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Tokyo Disney Resort operates according to the Oriental Land Company Group Environmental Policy, which takes a wide range of environmental considerations into account throughout all business operations. The policy calls for awareness and efforts to reduce waste and pollution that contributes to climate change and promote energy conservation, green purchasing, and recycling in all aspects of its business operations. The resort has plans and goals in place to reduce CO_2 emissions. The Resort continues its efforts to prevent climate change by supporting a wide range of CO_2 reduction activities. Additionally, Cast Members are strongly encouraged to use public transportation to commute to and from work. Other measures include the installation of energy management systems to boost transparency of energy usage, introduction of LED lighting systems within office buildings and electrical decorations for nighttime parades, and installation of solar panels in available locations.

At Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea, paper waste has been reduced by eliminating paper towels in most restrooms and installing paperless hand dryers. Cushioning material used for product packaging was changed from plastic to paper at all merchandise facilities. Moreover, waste at Tokyo Disney Resort is separated, often by hand, based on detailed standards in order to recycle as much as possible. The materials are then sent to consignment recycling companies. Nearly 100 percent of raw waste, which includes kitchen waste, leftover food and unsold foods is recycled.
