

Pixar Day at Sea Returns on Disney Cruise Line Sailings in 2027

CELEBRATION, Fla. (Feb. 20, 2026) — Disney Cruise Line is creating more ways for families to immerse themselves in beloved stories as Pixar Day at Sea returns on select sailings in January 2027. Guests sailing aboard the Disney Fantasy from Port Canaveral will once again enjoy story-driven entertainment inspired by fan-favorite stories from Pixar Animation Studios.

During Pixar Day at Sea, families become part of the ever-unfolding tales of their favorite toys, monsters, supers and more. The celebration features themed entertainment, playful character encounters, imaginative activities and immersive moments inspired by Disney and Pixar films including Toy Story, Monsters, Inc., The Incredibles and Finding Nemo. The day concludes with a high-energy Pixar Pals Celebration featuring a dance party and an unforgettable deck show.

To keep the fun going from morning to night, families can enjoy a lineup of new offerings alongside returning favorites that bring Pixar stories to life in interactive ways:

- Inside Out Channel Your Emotions Silent DJ with Joy
Joy, from Pixar's Inside Out, invites families to put on glowing headphones and join a colorful silent DJ experience that celebrates music, movement and shared happiness at sea.
- Wilderness Explorer's Ship Shape Adventure
Young adventurers can take part in an upbeat, hands-on adventure inspired by Russell, from Pixar's Up, discovering new skills and celebrating each step of their Wilderness Explorer journey.
- Style on Parade with Edna Mode
Guests are encouraged to showcase their Pixar-inspired fashions on the runway for Edna Mode, from Pixar's The Incredibles, in a playful celebration of creativity and style.

Pixar Day at Sea will continue to offer the signature fun of a Disney cruise vacation – world-class entertainment, themed dining, and dedicated spaces for all ages – along with exclusive programming that brings Pixar stories to life in a whole new way.
